

Foundational Award

CELEBRATING LAWSON GORDON

– 2025 Recipient of “The Beaver” Award for Wisdom

The Foundational Awards are presented annually to recognize employees who demonstrate respect, courage, humility, love, honesty, truth and wisdom in their daily work.

Lawson Gordon is known across the site as someone who leads with experience, patience, and care. A strong advocate for the Green Hand Program, and he takes great pride in helping new hires succeed. His approach to mentorship is genuine, he wants others to understand not only what to do, but why it’s done that way. A natural mentor through and through.

Gordon recently stepped into a supervisor role at R&G Horizon after previously serving as a lead hand. He has been with Bouchier since 2011 and advanced into leadership through experience and long-term service. Gordon said he was surprised when his name was called during the award presentation, adding that the moment was meaningful and one he will always remember.

His colleagues across the site describe Gordon as a steady leader known for patience, clear communication and consistent support for employees. He is a strong advocate for the Green Hand Program and is recognized for taking the time to ensure new workers understand not only what is required on the job, but why procedures are in place.

Whether he is at work or at home, Gordon is known for providing clear guidance, outlining expectations and potential scenarios, and ensuring everyone understand their responsibilities. His coworkers say his approach contributes to a respectful and supportive work environment.

"Lawson is well respected as a leader at Horizon, he is trustworthy, loyal and is very knowledgeable on processes and procedures, which he shares with the team regularly. I learn something new every time I talk to Lawson." -
